Power cut hits town businesses

EIGHTS INTERRUPTIONS IN TWO HOURS CAUSES DISRUPTION

BRIDPORT businesses were left to count the cost of another day of disruption as the town centre was hit by another power failure.

Much of East, West and South Street was affected by the power cut which Western Power Distribution blamed on an underground cable failure.

The electricity supply was cut at around noon and was intermittent for more than two hours before supply was restored.

But some business owners in the affected area are angry that disruption to their electricity service occurs far too often – with some claiming trade is lost due to the problem every year.

Chris Newall – director of Bridport Specsavers – said his business was badly affected by power cuts.

He said: “When it happens we can’t run eye tests, can’t run the till, can’t do much.

“We have had people in for appointments who have been unable to wait for things to get up and running again who have ended up leaving so, yes, business has been affected.

“It happens frequently – at least once a year. We have been here nine years and there hasn’t been a year where there hasn’t been a problem.

“Each time a different part of the town seems to be affected. It would be nice to have a secure supply.”

Bridport Music on South Street relied on their computer for stock taking, internet orders and order tracking – and lost it all during the power cut.

Co-owner Steph Garner said: “It looks like we will have to replace the computer. The power kept going off and on and it looks like the computer couldn’t take it.”

She estimated the cost of replacing the system to be over £500.

Branch manager of estate agents Palmer Snell on East Street said his business was also disrupted by the cuts.

He said: “When it happens, of course, all our computers go down.

But our phones go down too. What makes it worse is that customers phoning the branch get a tone suggesting the phone is ringing and ringing whereas here we are getting nothing at all.

“We have heard nothing from Western Power about it so we don’t know what went on.”

Marie Gray was manager in charge of retailer Peacocks when the power failed.

She said: “We had to keep getting everyone out of the shop for health and safety reasons. It gets very dark. But with the power going on and off it was in out in out like the hokey cokey.

Cheryl Davison of Mango Hair could not take bookings or wash or blow dry hair during the problems.

She said: “We have had problems before but yesterday took the biscuit.”

Banks were forced to close during the power cut – with the same problems affecting the Post Office.

Sub Post Mistress Karen Cook said: “The problem is that it takes 15 minutes for us to reboot the system so before it came back online it would go down again.

“We must have had eight power cuts in two hours. We had pretty irate customers.

“We are not like other businesses. Because of security we have to have everyone out of the building when the power goes.

“The power surge also blew up two counters and affected the driving license machine.

“We have had to have engineers in to fix it again. It’s very frustrating.”

Western Power Distribution blamed the power

Death Notice

McMURTRY - (Jim) James Herbert aged 89 years, formerly of Lyme Regis, on 12th March 2013, peacefully in Elmwood Residential Home, Colyford.
Husband of the late Babe, much loved father & father in law of Ian & Liz.
Funeral service to be held at St Michael's Church, Lyme Regis on WEDNESDAY 27th MARCH at 11.30am followed by cremation. Family flowers only please but if desired donations to the Royal British Legion (Lyme Regis) c/o J F Clarke & Son Maryknoll, Lyme Street, Axminster EX13 5AU or at the service.

LYME fishmonger Simon Bennett - or Si The Fish as he's locally known - has become a popular fixture of the town since he opened The Old Watch House fresh fish place at The Cobb. His many customers include top chefs Mark Hix, Clarissa Dickson-Wright and Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall and his shop has featured on BBC, ITV and Channel 4 programmes.

■ HOW long have you been in the fishmongering business?

I started at the age of 18, working in my Dad's shop in Christchurch, Dorset. So I've been a fishmonger for 21 years - blimey!

■ HOW did you and your family come to live in Lyme?

I was working on another of my father's stalls in Dorchester High Street and a good customer - Sarah Wilkinson, the daughter Victor Homyer, Lyme's fishmonger since 1934 - came up and asked us if we'd take over the shop in Lyme as her father wanted to retire. So we took on The Old Watch House and after a week in the town I met Jo, now my wife. Our first romantic chat was during a walk around The Cobb - very French Lieutenant's Woman!

■ IS fish difficult to cook and what is your favourite easy fish dish?

The golden rule with nearly every fish, so long as it's been cleaned, is you can wrap it in tin foil with lemon, butter and a drop of white wine and bake it for 20 minutes on 180 degrees gas mark 4.

That is a general rule but it really works well with any flat fish. Lemon sole or brill would be particularly fine this way - you could ruin the taste of the fish by dabbling with other stronger flavourings.

It's difficult to say which recipe would be my favourite as we cook this way seasonally with all sorts of fish, depending on what's in season. But I never get bored of trying something new that a customer may have recommended.

Raw wriggling scallops straight from the shell give me a lift. There's more zinc in them than oysters.

■ WE'VE recently read that some say mackerel is unsustainable - what's the true story on this?

That confusing media sound bite a month ago was put out by the Marine Conservation Society.

It was confusing because they clearly state on their own website that south west line-caught mackerel is the most sustainable way of buying this fish which is famed for its omega content. The sound bite was regarding North Sea/Icelandic stocks and wasn't even related to an actual diminishing of fish, just the amount of quota set between Icelandic and Scottish fleets.

On the whole a very confusing load of almost-foreign nonsense has been said recently but the golden rule is: if it's been caught on a hand-line then it's sustainable. Which is good news for Lyme as the fantastic omega-packed beauties are traditionally available locally.

■ WHERE can I get the best advice on what fish to eat and how to prepare it?

All my staff (with the probable exception of Geoff, our zany apprentice) can offer excellent advice of what fish to choose and how to cook it in all three of our outlets (Lyme, Ottery and Exeter High Street). We don't just wear white coats for our Saturday shifts.

■ WILL you be taking part in the Mackerel and Crab festivals planned for Lyme this summer? And what's this we hear that you've invented a new sport of mackerel tossing?

The Great Dorset Mackerel Toss could become something quite big but I don't want to be specific here yet. Let's just say it's very original and a TV programme have already said they'd be interested in filming it. It'll be a great festival season for fish in Lyme this year.

There are actually three different seafood-related festivals planned, and my team and I are working with Mark Hix on all of them, especially the Food Rocks event for the first weekend in September.

■ WHAT advice would you give local shoppers who want to eat more fish because they hear it's good for them?

It's really all about where the fish is from. Processed fish has been fiddled with in a factory. If you buy local you have the reassurance that it's fresh, unprocessed and natural. And because of the variety of Omega oils in fish, it's good for your heart, your mind, memory and blood circulation. Fish will keep you chipper.

■ WHAT'S your favourite time of the year in Lyme and why's that?

Autumn - after the madness of the season.

■ WHAT are your leisure pursuits?

I'm a lifelong golfer and at nights I get my telescope out to indulge my study of astronomy. But my best thing to do on a day-off is to be with my children, Sam and Rosie.

■ WHAT would you change about Lyme if you could?

Car parking. I'd build either an overground and doubtless controversial multi-storey by Monmouth beach or an underground one in the same place!

■ IF you were planning a dinner party for six people, who would be your perfect guests and what dish would you cook?

The new Pope and five of his cardinals. I'd cook Monkfish and we could talk all evening about the meaning of Cod.

New business forum for West Bay

NEW GROUP WILL CHAMPION CAUSES IN THE HARBOUR AREA

BUSINESSES in West Bay have formed a new business forum to tackle concerns about the new road layout scheme in the area.

Campaigners are also moving to form a neighbourhood forum which, under localism legislation, would allow them to draw up a neighbourhood plan and give them more say about what happens in West Bay.

The initiatives have come about in response to the deeply unpopular local authority 'West Bay Enhancement Scheme' which redesigned road access to the harbour area of West Bay.

Businesses in the area fear the new layout will

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedi.co.uk

hit business as traffic is discouraged from entering the centre of the resort.

A public meeting in West Bay's St John's Church on March 8th attracted over 100 angry residents and business owners.

Frustration at the meeting ran so high that it was suggested that West Bay might break away from Bridport and form a separate parish council in reaction to the scheme.

The forums are seen as a compromise which would see West Bay remain part of Bridport Town Council while championing causes which directly affect the harbour area.

The business forum has already met twice with WDDC officials to discuss concerns about the West Bay Enhancement Scheme.

Among issues raised were problems with locking the main car park at night and the lack of signage to promote businesses and attractions.

Also discussed was the lack of a pedestrian refuge on the new road between St John's Church and the shops.

A further meeting was arranged with Chris Graves from the parking team at WDDC where the possibility of free parking over the Easter weekend will be explored.

Also mooted was the possibility of a business rate relief for those businesses affected by the road closure.

Councillor Kayes saw the meeting as evidence of progress.

She said: "I would like to thank all those who have made written representations about their concerns."

"Along with the results of the survey taken at the public meeting, we now have a body of evidence about people's concerns.

"Officers at the district and county councils will be meeting to discuss the problems this week."

"I am hoping that immediate changes can be made to the Haddon House roundabout and the lack of a crossing where the pedestrian refuge was taken away outside St John's Church."

"We also spoke about the changed priority at the junction of West Bay Road with Marsh Barn Lane."

"On a positive note, there was an agreement that a sign showing a clear plan of businesses in the Bay should be clearly visible in the main car park and there has been a proposal for signage showing suggested pedestrianised routes around the bay focusing on its main features."

"We also talked about signs at the Crown roundabout welcoming people to the Bay and focusing on its historic harbour, family activities, stunning beaches and shops and amusements."

"I am hoping the council will see fit to promote businesses in the Bay appropriately and give it the attention it deserves - especially in the light of all the publicity arising now from Broadchurch."

She added: "Finally, I believe we are moving forward."

cut on an "underground cable failure" saying 3,970 customers were affected but it was unconnected with the road works currently affecting East Street.

Yet a WPD spokeswoman could not guarantee the future looks any brighter for the town's beleaguered business owners, which is served by three of the company's grids.

A spokeswoman said: "We had three high voltage faults in 2012 and three low voltage problems [with one of the grids]."

"If it's a cable fault then it would not have been planned and so there is no way of warning customers."

"A number of things can cause failures - lightning strikes, the cable being cut or even a large bird on the line."

"Unfortunately we cannot predict when these things will happen. We take all our power cuts seriously and deal with them as soon as we can."

"We apologise for any inconvenience caused."

But for business in the town it is more than an inconvenience.

Dave Derham of South Street's Double D said: "Business in town is hard enough as it is. This sort of thing doesn't help at all."

Big salary on offer for PCC position

DORSET'S Police and Crime Commissioner is currently recruiting a new member of staff with a basic annual salary of £82,000.

Advertisements have appeared in the national press which read: "Dorset's Police and Crime Commissioner, Martyn Underhill, is recruiting a Chief Executive and Monitoring Officer to support the delivery of his vision, strategy and priorities."

The deadline for applications is given as Friday, March 22nd.

The announcement was met with criticism over the scale of the remuneration which some see as disproportionate at a time when new police recruits are facing a cut in starting salary of £4,000 to £19,000.

Councillor Karl Wallace called the salary "exorbitant." He said: "There should be a cap on the amount public servants could be paid."

"There are lots of good people out there who are capable of doing these jobs for much less."

He added: "We are pruning all the time from the bottom. We need to take it from the top too."

"They keep saying we are all in it together but some seem to be more in it than others."

Councillor David Tett said: "This adds to the costs that the taxpayer has to pay for this new fangled system of keeping the peace."

"And for those on low wages and income support... it rubs salt into a very sore and unnecessary wound."

Mr Underhill has already faced criticism over his decision to award his new Chief Constable Debbie Simpson the maximum pay rise allowable - her £146,000 is 7 per cent more than her predecessor.

A Police and Crime Commission spokesman said that the salary was greater than the equivalent position under the old Dorset Police Authority - annual salary £74,430 - but that the new position "is clearly significantly different from the previous role of Chief Executive to the Police Authority."

Whole county to benefit from nationwide tourism campaign

THE Visit Dorset tourism partnership is working with VisitEngland, the national tourist board, to promote Dorset and encourage more people to holiday at home and discover the best that England has to offer.

The £41.9 million, three-year project called 'Growing Tourism Locally,' is funded by the government's Regional Growth Fund, with contributions from VisitEngland and destination partners from around the country.

The Visit Dorset partnership, which includes district and borough councils from across the county, is taking part in three exciting campaigns: Coastal Escapes, Rural Escapes, and the English Seaside.

Dorset will feature in a range of national media including network radio stations Classic FM and Gold FM, The Guardian and Mail on Sunday. There is also a substantial programme of digital and social media activity, including Facebook competitions and dedicated Dorset pages on visitengland.com

The campaigns aim to inspire UK residents to experience England's world-famous coastline, inspiring landscapes, historic market towns, picturesque villages and fantastic seaside destinations.

Visit Dorset is working alongside many other major holiday destinations including the English Riviera, the Peak District and Yorkshire.

Leader of West Dorset District Council, Robert Gould, said: "We are pleased that the Visit Dorset Partnership has been able to support Vis-itEngland's high profile national campaigns.

"This has provided an exciting opportunity to showcase Dorset as a leading UK holiday destination.

"Dorset has so much to offer: beautiful beaches, a wide range of attractions, stunning countryside, and the world-famous Jurassic coastline.

"We are looking forward to welcoming many more visitors to the area to support our tourism industry on the back of these campaigns."

The Visit Dorset Tourism Partnership is made up of the district and borough councils from West Dorset, Christchurch, Purbeck, East Dorset and Weymouth and Portland.

West Dorset District Council's tourism team are co-ordinating the marketing of rural Dorset on behalf of the partnership.

Meeting will discuss X53 and 31 bus services

THE next meeting of the West Dorset Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) will be held on Thursday, March 28th at the WI Hall, North Street, Bridport.

Running from 6:30pm to 8:30pm the bi-monthly meeting is open to all members of the public as well as town and parish councillors interested in public transport matters.

Following the recent announcement that the X53 bus services will be a commercial operation by the date of the meeting, we will be discussing the alterations to the timetables now being implemented.

The group hopes a representative from First Bus will be present as usual together with a representative from Dorset County Council Passenger Transport Department along with with any other bus and rail operators who wish to attend.

The 31 timetable and how it could evolve will also be discussed.

Printed copies of the latest timetables should be ready for collection on the evening.

The group's "roving specialists" will also be reporting on the conferences they have attended and the contacts with Passenger Focus which have taken place.

There will be a review of items raised at previous meetings and, as always, there will be time for a "democratic moment" when any individual may raise questions about local bus and rail services

For further details, please contact the WATAG chairman, Peter Smith, on (01308) 424646 or watag@hotmail.co.uk

Air ambulance called

A MAN from Bridport was air-lifted to hospital after suffering a suspected cardiac arrest.

A crew from the Devon Air Ambulance was called after a 999 call was taken at 12:31pm on Saturday (March 16th) to attend the man in a home on South Street.

The Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance was at the time attending an incident in Portland.

The Devon-based emergency services helicopter took off from Exeter and landed in the field behind St Mary's Church - site of Bridport Community Orchard.

Witnesses saw the crew enter the South Street property to treat the elderly man at the scene with the help of the Ambulance Service.

The man was then flown to Dorset County Hospital in Dorchester where treatment continued.

What does the future hold for governance in West Dorset ?

■ GIVEN the apparent reluctance of West Dorset District Council (WDDC) to issue a press release on the subject, I write to draw your readers' attention to the discussions, currently underway among councillors, on the future system of governance for the district.

I do this now as I am aware that two very expensive and contentious decisions have been made in recent years under the current 'cabinet' system of governance.

Firstly, the £15million project creating new offices for WDDC and a new Dorchester library and adult education centre and, secondly, the late addition to the new local plan of the Came View site to the south east of Dorchester for a possible 1,000 new homes.

WDDC's current system of governance is one in which all major decisions (including the two referred to above) are made by the seven person Executive Committee (often referred to as "the cabinet").

Members of this are chosen by the Leader and are all drawn from the majority party (Conservative).

Although cabinet decisions are scrutinised by two committees made up of members from different political groups (Conservative 8, Liberal Democrat 3, West Dorset Independent 1) this check on the Executive is of very limited value in a council where party whipping plays a significant role.

Occasionally, in one of the few (five per year) Full Council meetings, a "recommendation" from the cabinet may be debated by all 48 councillors before being put to the vote.

There can be little doubt that this system leads directly to a very significant democratic deficit with the views of many councillors playing no part at all in decisions on major issues.

It may not remain like this. Councillors are now discussing alternatives to the Leader and cabinet system including reverting to the Committee structure.

This system, allowing as it does a much broader and more representative debate on major issues, could well lead to better decision-making.

Your readers may like to find out for themselves which system their elected representatives favour and, more importantly, why they believe it to be in the best interests of the voters of West Dorset.

Pond to be restored

A POND is being restored and an island created on the River Brit to give endangered mammals a refuge.

The Environment Agency project to create a water vole sanctuary at Allington Pond is expected to take around a week to complete.

The agency said the protected animal was disappearing due to habitat loss and predators; the species is now only found in a tiny fraction of rivers and streams.

The UK's water vole population has dropped 90 per cent since the late 1980s, making it the UK's fastest declining mammal.

Denhay Farms wins prize for its bacon at London awards night

DENHAY Farms of Broadoak, Bridport, has scooped a top prize for its bacon.

The farm was judged to have produced the best bacon in the Brand Category at Great British Bacon Awards held in London.

Described as "the highlight of the bacon calendar" the competition judged more than 300 rashers from around the country.

Actress and cookbook writer Fay Ripley presented the award to Denhay's Phil Cadding and Ellen Streatfield in recognition of their Dry Cured Smoked Back Bacon.

She said: "I love cooking with bacon as it is such a versatile ingredient, it is far more than a breakfast favourite!

"There is such a choice when it comes to picking bacon – whether you shop at your local butchers or at the supermarket – something these awards really prove.

"The quality of the bacon you buy is really important and one way of ensuring the provenance is by looking out for the Red Tractor logo when choosing your meat.

"This logo shows that the bacon is fully traceable back to Red Tractor farms which have been independently inspected."

A Food Network survey conducted in 2012 concluded that bacon was Britain's favourite food.

Kids go bananas for healthy eating

SCHOOLCHILDREN in Bridport went bananas when a fruit-fuelled champion of healthy eating dropped by.

"DJ Banana" – a/k/a Angie Porter from Local Food Links – cycled around local schools to promote the message that eating fruit can be fun as well as healthy.

Sponsored by Bridport farm shop Washingpool Farm and the new Hive HQ Cookery School, the youngsters were invited to decorate fruit in fun designs and enter them into the organisation's 'fruity friends' competition.

Winning entries will win a 6" tablet, fun food hampers from Washingpool Farm Shop or a day at the Hive Cookery School at West Bay.

Local Food Links encourages healthy eating from local, reliable sources.

It has a strong presence in schools, helping children to develop good eating habits, partly by providing healthy, locally produced hot meals.

A LFL spokesman said: "Local Food Links is not only about getting the freshest and best tasting food, it's also about connecting to and strengthening our community.

"The message really is about healthy eating and food provenance as well as raising the profile of Local Food Links within schools.

"Healthy food is essential for learning and Local Food Links are helping children choose a balance of tasty healthy food with room for some treats as well.

"Local Food Links hot school meal menus are known in Dorset to be the benchmark for locally sourced, healthy food made from scratch."

Children can still send in a photo of their decorated fruit either in the competition box in schools or by emailing competition@localfoodlinks.org.uk.

Each entry must contain the child's name, class and contact email address and should arrive no later than 5pm on April 19th.

Some of the latest entries can be seen on the LFL Facebook page www.facebook.com/localfoodlinks.

Parents who want to find out more about the hot school meals service and book online can visit www.localfoodlinks.org.uk

Chris helps school launch newspaper

WHILE teachers across West Dorset inspired children to enjoy reading during Book Week, staff at one primary school turned the tables and got pupils writing.

The result was the creation of a school newspaper at Thorner's Primary School in Litton Cheney.

On hand to advise the youngsters as they went about setting up their publication was View From reporter / photographer Chris Denne.

He outlined the roles that have to be filled in order for a newspaper to run smoothly – from reporter to editor, sub to designer, photographer to sales team.

He then offered advice on interviewing techniques and writing editorial before giving pointers on ethics, objectivity and the importance of a free press.

Headteacher Mrs Chafey was delighted the youngsters were so keen to start a newspaper.

She said: "Normally for Book Week we dress up and celebrate the books we love.

"But this year I wanted the children to get involved with the writing side. Everything we read is written and this is a good way for them to engage with that side of it.

"I'm sure they are really going to enjoy it."

Before the morning was out, one youngster ensured that, aged ten, he would already have a photo credit in a local newspaper.

William Baldwin – who aspires to be a professional photographer one day – took the shot which accompanies this piece. A great job he did too.

Sunday Times names Beaminster as one of the top places to live

BEAMINSTER has been described as one of the nation's most desirable places to live according to a report in The Sunday Times.

The feature listed 100 top places to live in Britain using criteria such as the quality of local schools, attractiveness of the architecture and the beauty of the surrounding countryside.

Beaminster came in at 12 – with the article citing its relatively affordability compared to closer to the coast, the annual festival, Mat Follas' Wild Garlic restaurant and the quality of its cafes.

ASA reject complaint made against View From

A COMPLAINT about two full page advertisements in the View From series of newspapers has been dismissed in a final adjudication by the Advertising Standards Authority.

The advertisements were headed 'What does the future hold for Bridport's St Michael's Trading Estate' and were paid for by the owners of the site, Hayward and Co.

The ASA received one complaint about the feature and seven issues were investigated.

None of the seven issues challenged by the unknown complainant was upheld by the ASA.

The complainant challenged whether the advertisement was obviously identifiable as such; whether the photographs in the feature were misleading because they were not representative of the area; whether the advertisement was misleading because it suggested the houses pictured in an artist's drawing would be affordable housing; whether the claim that the development would preserve the character of St Michael's was misleading; whether the claim that the scheme complied with all current plans and policies was misleading; whether the claims that the English Heritage response was inaccurate and that the historic elements of the Lilliput building and all of the Red Brick Cafe would be retained could be substantiated, and whether the claims that the buildings were of little historical value was misleading.

In responses to the complaint, Hayward and Co said they considered the advertisement to be obviously identifiable as such having produced the copy and illustrations and placed and paid for it as an 'ad'.

Hayward and Co said they considered the photographs to be typical and that they illustrated why they were planning to undertake the development.

They also said that the development would provide attractive, affordable housing.

The site owners said the concept of 'character' in planning and building was subjective, both technically and emotionally, especially in areas like the one where the site was located.

Answering issue five, Hayward and Co said that West Dorset District Council had not responded to the application at the time the advertisement was placed but that it had subsequently approved the application subject to conditions.

On issue six, Hayward and Co said there were aspects of the letter from English Heritage with which they agreed, but there were aspects with which they did not agree and which were inaccurate.

On the final issue, Hayward and Co. said many buildings were in a poor state of repair and could not be left to decay any longer.

In a summary of the Advertising Standards Authority Council decision, the ASA stated: "Seven issues were investigated, all of which were not upheld."

Editor of the View From Philip Evans, said: "I am delighted with the Advertising Standards Authority adjudication. I believe it is vital we maintain ethical and accurate standards in everything we do.

"Newspapers in particular are under the microscope, and never has it been more important for us to maintain the highest standards of editorial and advertising content, something I have always believed in passionately. This adjudication just underlines the importance of those values."

Kathlene celebrates her 105th birthday

▲ Kathlene Tingay celebrates her birthday with Jez Morris of Magna Housing

MAGNA Housing Association's oldest resident celebrated her 105th birthday at a sheltered scheme in Bridport.

Kathlene Tingay of Vernon's Court, Bridport, celebrated the occasion with close friends, family members and Magna staff who held a surprise afternoon tea party in her honour.

Jez Morris, Magna's head of housing presented Kathlene with a bouquet of flowers and a birthday cake.

Kathlene's birthday was on March 2nd but celebrations were delayed to accommodate what was described as "her busy social calendar."

She said: "This was a big surprise. I thought I was going for an afternoon walk with my family."

"It's very kind for all these people to come and I love the beautiful bouquet of flowers."

Kathlene was born in Soho, London and moved to Bridport when she retired after falling in love with the area from childhood.

She recalled: "I had never seen the sea before my first visit to Dorset as a child. I was terrified to go in the sea at first but soon fell in love with the whole experience."

When asked what the secret was for a long happy life, Kathlene said, "staying active and happy."

Bridport puts on its red noses

BRIDPORT pulled out all the stops and dug deep for worthy causes as Comic Relief 2013 swung into gear. Schools and organisations throughout the town put a smile on faces while managing to raise much-needed cash at the same time.

Bridport Primary School raised money through a talent show judged by an X-Factor-style panel of pupils and staff.

The entire school – colourfully dressed in red – cheered on performers from each year, including magicians, dancers, gymnasts and even a yoyo performer, before the panel passed judgment.

St Catherine's held a jumble sale and cake sale to raise funds.

Hard at work was Year Four's Fred – who was compelled to help worthy causes after he learned about the plight of sweatshop workers in India.

He said: "I wanted to raise money for people who make our clothes. They have only got one room, sleep on the floor and don't have much money. It's not very fair."

St Andrew's Pre-School helped out by wearing red and organising games, while the Riverside Restaurant in West Bay brought in the funds by donating 20 per cent of the bill whenever someone ordered from their special Red Nose menu.

Bridport Music Shop sold cakes and ran a collection pot, while Bridport town crier Jane Silver-Corran

by Chris Denne
chris@pemediia.co.uk

encouraged group singing at a hatful of locations around the town including the leisure centre, a high street bank, Chancery House day centre and St Ronan's Pre-School.

Bridport St Mary's School collected more than £1,100 through a variety of events including sponsored silences, face painting antics, conga dancing, cake sales and a drawing contest.

Even more was brought in through a popular 'egg roulette' game which saw six teachers run the gauntlet of having an egg cracked over their head. Five were hard boiled, one – messily – was not.

Teacher Mrs Kingston – whose Year Five class raised more than any other year at the school – was proud of the entire school.

She said: "Every single child has done something. I'm really proud of them all. We watched a video of how the money raised might be spent and the children have been brilliant."

Headteacher Helen Farmer told the pupils: "Everything you have done today [for Comic Relief] has been down to Mrs Kingston" before inviting her to run the gauntlet of the egg roulette along with five lucky fellow teachers.

Easter Holidays!

Things to do and see to keep you and the kids entertained this Spring!

Osprey Leisure

Easter Kid's Club 2013

THIS school holiday Osprey Leisure Centre has programmed the usual variety of popular activities for kids aged 5 -14 years from 2 April through to 12 April on the weekdays but excluding the Bank Holiday.

Amongst the usual mix of activity days Osprey is now offering an indoor football academy on Tuesdays and Thursdays which when added to the half day multi activity sessions on the same day give 2 extra full days from 9am - 4pm which have recently been added to the programme earlier in the year.

Many children love using the inflatable pirate ship obstacle course during private pool parties but have the rare chance to attend the junior sessions for the over 9's which take place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2 to 4pm for only £3 per child for a full 2 hours.

What better than to give your children the chance to have a great time in a safe indoor environment whilst expending much energy, being active and having fun this holiday season?

For any further information on the above or the adjacent adverts please feel free to contact the centre on 01305 824378 or visit the centre's website.

Save the Children fundraisers help Syrian refugees

INTERNATIONAL charity Save the Children was given a boost when volunteers hosted a table-top sale.

St Mary's Hall on Bridport's South Street was filled with stalls supporting a variety of charities – all to the additional benefit of Save The Children.

StC are currently engaged with a nationwide push to help one particular situation, explained Bruce Upton, member of the StC Bridport and Beaminster team.

He said: "There is a big push right now to help refugee camps in Jordan and Lebanon who are fleeing the conflict in Syria.

"This table top sale invites different groups to book tables under the umbrella of Save the Children."

In spite of competition from the previous day's Comic Relief extravaganza, Mr Upton was still seeing money flow in.

He said: "I am constantly reassured by the level of support for Save the Children in this time – in spite of the economic climate."

Retiring owners of Woodlands Farm Kennels say thanks for your support

MARY and Alan Bull of Woodlands Farm Kennels would like to thank everyone who has phoned or called for their kind words of understanding support and thanks for our past work, and all the good wishes we have received for our retirement.

We also thank the editor and staff of the View From for all their past help in bringing the dogs in need of homes to the attention of their future owners.

It is no exaggeration to say without which the charity would not have been able to cover their costs, and hundreds of dogs would not have had a future. Thank you.

To your readers, thanks for their financial and moral support over the years, and to the hundreds of people who have taken on our ex-stray dogs, and to those whose donations have paid for veterinary treatments, treats, toys, etc.

We remind you that the boarding kennels are closed, so you will need to make alternative arrangements for boarding for the present, but as the kennels are for sale do watch for new owners re-opening the kennels in the future.

In the meantime Mary is continuing the dog grooming, and we will be pleased to see and chat with any of our past clients.

As I expect you all now know, Woodlands Farm Strays will stop taking the local stray dogs shortly.

In the meantime, we still need loving homes for these dogs who in not having been reclaimed have been abandoned by their previous owners.

We do not home dogs we have any doubts about their temperaments, though they may have lacked training in their past, so some need more time and patience, but they have the potential to be wonderful pets.

Currently we have:

SAFFIE, white and black cross, a very loving dog, she is lively and active can not live with a cat, she is vaccinated and spayed;

SPIKE, Gold staffie, an older male, very friendly boy deserves to have a loving home for his latter years;

TIA, black and white staffie bitch, loving lively and probably around two years, has so much love to give it is a shame to see her sitting in a kennel for far too long, she is spayed and vaccinated;

Alaskan Malamute, only a young dog, we are still getting to know this very attractive lad, very lively will need lots of time from a new owner

COLL, border collie male, another lively young dog about two years old he does not like to be left alone so may benefit from a canine companion, or a family member who is home most of the time.

JESSIE, pictured below, lovely little white and tan cross, again around two years old, having spent the day out with a potential home we can give more information to anyone interested, she is vaccinated and spayed, will make a lovely companion.

We also have two other dogs who may be in need of homes if they are not reclaimed shortly.

Many thanks,
MARY BULL

Pupils throw surprise baby shower for their teacher

A PRIMARY school teacher about to go on maternity leave was given an unexpected send-off when her class threw a surprise 'baby' party.

Mrs Grove – who teaches at Bridport's St Mary's Primary School and is expecting her first baby in April – was astonished to discover the schoolchildren in her class had organised a baby-themed party in her honour.

Baby skittles and bib relay races were just some of the maternity-themed games the children devised in her honour.

She said: "It's lovely. When I told them I was pregnant the first thing they said was 'let's have a party'."

"Giving it a baby theme was totally their idea."

Mrs Grove expects to be back teaching after Christmas.

CALAMITY JANE

May 14th-18th,
Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis

There's Gold in them there Hills!

AFTER the hysteria of the California Gold Rush faded during the 1850's, rumours began to spread of gold being found in the Rocky Mountains and several small parties explored the region.

Then, in late July 1874, the 7th Cavalry led by Colonel George Armstrong Custer searched the Black Hills, Dakota, for a location to establish an army post. Gold was found on land that had been ceded by the Treaty of Laramie 1868 as land for the Great Sioux Reservation. The gold miners didn't really care that they were taking gold from the land that the Indians owned and some miners were still sneaking in even after they were told to stay out of the Indian territory ~ the Black Hills Gold Rush had begun!

By the autumn of 1875 there were an estimated 500 miners in the area and prospectors from Montana had located deposits of gold in the Black Hills, paying between twenty to forty cents to the pan. For those early discoverers, each spade of earth revealed a veritable fortune in gold. A mere nine months later, a million dollars of gold at $20 an ounce had been taken from the Black Hills and approximately 10,000 people populated the Black Hills, with 5,000 of these in Deadwood.

During the building of the railroad between 1876 and 1890, gold was shipped out of the Black Hills by stagecoach. The summer of 1876 saw $500,000 worth of gold shipped out of Deadwood. It was transported in iron safes in armoured treasure coaches, some of which carried $200,000 worth at once. One such coach in 1877 carried $350,000 and weighed in at just under half a tonne. The coaches made vulnerable targets for bandits and Indians and therefore sharpshooters were hired to protect them.

One such famous hired hand was known as Calamity Jane ~ a hard-bitten, gun-toting tomboy. Her story was written into a musical comedy ~ CALAMITY JANE ~ which will be staged at the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis by Members of Lyme Regis Operatic Society from May 14th to 18th.

Calamity Jane will be played by Nicky Sweetland who comes in for a lot of teasing about her lack of femininity and her tendency to enhance her stage-coach stories by Wild Bill Hickock, played by Ian Crew. The character of Francis Fryer will be performed by John Challis and calls for one scene in drag! Scott Robson and Sian Dernley will provide the romantic element, while smaller roles are taken by Brian Boyt and Tracey Dare. The director, Nick Lawrence, is putting the cast through their paces with the enthusiastic assistance of Rachel Worsley who is choreographing the big numbers such as "Just blew in from the Windy City" and "Careless with the Truth". It will be a show worth seeing!

Tickets are £11 each (with a £5 concession for children) and will be on sale at the Box Office run by Fortnam Smith & Banwell in their new premises at 53 Broad Street in Lyme Regis and they will be pleased to assist by telephone on 01297 445666.

ABBOTSBURY SUBTROPICAL GARDENS HOSTS GIANT EASTER EGG HUNT

FLUFFY bunnies and giant chocolate eggs are some of the prizes on offer at a Giant Easter Egg Hunt at Abbotsbury Subtropical Gardens this upcoming bank holiday weekend.

Families are being invited to join the annual choc fest and rummage in the Jurassic undergrowth.

The Giant Easter Egg Hunt takes place over the course of four days from Good Friday, March 29th, Easter Saturday, March 30th, Easter Sunday, March 31st to Monday, April 1st.

Visitors who are lucky enough to find the Golden Horseshoe can win one giant chocolate Easter Egg every day. Other smaller tokens will be hidden near the pathways so there is no need to clamber through the flowerbeds. These tokens can be exchanged for one of 8,000 yummy Cadbury's Crème Eggs (there will be a maximum of one egg per person).

The finders of the Wessex FM bug will be presented with a Fluffy Easter Bunny ~ there is one each day waiting to be given away. Other free activities on offer include a children's entertainer, bouncy castle and face painting.

General Manager of Abbotsbury Tourism, John Houston, said: 'Come and enjoy a traditional Easter Egg hunt on a grand scale at Abbotsbury Subtropical Gardens. There's a real sense of rebirth and rejoicing as the Spring blossoms unfurl here.'

Abbotsbury Subtropical Gardens are open from 10am to 6pm. Last admission is 5pm. Normal admission prices apply.

Winner of BBC Folk Award for best newcomer comes to Marine Theatre

Performance follows second album release and Jools Holland performance

SINCE Sam Carter released his debut album 'Keep-sakes' in 2009, there has been a mounting excitement about this songwriter, guitarist and singer.

At the time he was an Emerging Artist In Residence at The Southbank Centre in London and has since supported Bellowhead on a UK tour, performed in the Middle East and UK with the British Council's 'Shifting Sands' project, played to thousands as part of the all-star line-up for the tour 'The Lady: A Homage To Sandy Denny', performed on major venue and festival stages in his own right and walked away with Horizon Award for best newcomer at the 2010 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards. And his arrival hasn't gone unnoticed by some of the finest singer-songwriters and guitarists in the world today. In the three years since 'Keep-sakes' was released he has performed alongside all of the following: Nic Jones, Martin Carthy, Richard Thompson, Chris Wood and Martin Simpson.

Sam released his second album, 'The No Testament', in August 2012, which was soon followed by a performance on 'Later... with Jools Holland'.

Don't miss this chance to catch the talented singer-songwriter when he plays at The Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis, next Thursday, March 28th. Doors open 7.45pm, support starts at 8pm, and Sam will be onstage from 8.50pm.

Tickets cost £12/£11, and a Theatre-Friends discount is available. To book visit www.marinetheatre.com or call 01297 442138.

A fantastic sea front location, as made famous by Broadchurch

ELLIPSE is an Italian café bistro, located on the sea front, opposite the new pier, in West Bay, open every day.

With a stunning panoramic view of Lyme Bay, through glass walls, arching around from the east to the south cliff, sunsets can be truly spectacular, setting over Lyme Bay, flooding the interior with golden light. No other building in West Bay has such truly stunning views.

Internally you will find a relaxing, comfortable, contemporary modern design that mirrors the exterior environment.

“Authentic Italian food, the way it would be cooked in Italy”

Everything on the menu at Ellipse is freshly made by the two new Italian Chefs. All the pizza and bread dough is home made, they bake their own fresh bread and cakes daily, make their own desserts, and cook authentic Italian food, the way it would be cooked in Italy.

All meat is sourced from a local butcher, who makes the sausages, and minces the meat on his premises and prepares the beef and chicken by hand to Ellipse's exacting requirements. Every single egg used in the restaurant is free range, and they insist on the freshest fish and seafood available.

There is a wide range of gluten free food available, so you can still enjoy Ellipse's wonderful Italian food, without worrying about your allergy.

Starting on Good Friday, 29th March, the brand new menu will be available, along with longer opening hours for the summer season. A sample of this new menu can be found on the page opposite. Ellipse uses only the best ingredients they can find, and source everything from local suppliers where possible.

The owners of Ellipse would like to take this opportunity to say how very grateful they are for all the local support they receive. Ellipse is very much a part of the community, and is there for the locals first and foremost.

ROLL UP FOR FAMILY FUN
AT CIRCUS WONDERLAND

CIRCUS Wonderland, UK's newest circus, is coming to Bridport next month and here's your chance to get some free family tickets for what promises to be one of the most original and entertaining shows of its kind.

Askers Meadow is due to play host to Britain's most magical circus during the Easter holidays with shows running from Wednesday April 3rd until Sunday April 7th.

With side splitting comedy and daredevil thrills, Circus Wonderland takes you into a fantasy world of magic and excitement where anything can happen.

Get ready for a Close Encounter with the Duo Stefanelli, who fly through the roof of the Big Top in their glittering spaceship, while the amazing Alejandro will set pulses racing as he swoops and soars above your heads on his death defying trapeze.

Angel Bojilov can juggle and spin plates on sticks, all whilst perching precariously on a tightrope, and Hungarian State Circus star Laci will balance his wife Klaudia at the top of a twenty foot pole, on his head!

The show also features the award winning Popolino Musical Clowns, Kakehole and Popol, who will be arriving with a trunk full of tricks and will be accompanied by their lovable friend Bertie the cartoon Bear.

Performance times are Weekdays at 3pm and 7pm, Saturday at 2pm and 5pm, and Sunday at 2pm only. Tickets are £9.00 or £7.00 on the first day.

For further information contact the circus Box Office on 07531 612240 or visit their website www.circuswonderland.co.uk.

Kakehole the Clown

WIN TICKETS TO THE CIRCUS!

View From has teamed up with Circus Wonderland and are offering two family tickets of up to five people absolutely free, to see this wonderful spectacle of live entertainment that is all too rare in this country nowadays.

All you have to do is answer the following question:

What is the name of the circus bear?

Post your answer to: Circus Competition, View From, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB, or if you can enter by e-mail by sending the answer, together with your name, address and contact number, to stuart@pemedial.co.uk.

Entries close at noon on Monday, April 1st and two families chosen at random by Kakehole will be notified later that day to arrange when you wish to come.

So here's your chance to catch this unique opportunity and enjoy some good old family fun.

ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND

THOSE familiar with Lewis Carroll's literary menagerie of colourful characters will enjoy the clarity with which Christopher Wheeldon portrays them in dance. The whole Company is drawn into the fun, dancing a myriad of quirky characters: a twitchy White Rabbit, a tap dancing Mad Hatter, a sinuous caterpillar and so many more. Alice and the Knave of Hearts, deftly danced by two Royal Ballet Principal dancers, are at the centre of the story, and the role of The Queen of Hearts, another Principal, is wittily captured with hilarious results.

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland is a brilliantly imagined show and with a magical score, ingeniously inventive designs and a wealth of theatrical effects, has something for everyone to treasure. The show is a live ballet in three acts, including two intervals (approx running time 180 mins).

The Electric Palace will screen Alice's Adventures in Wonderland on Thursday, March 28th. Doors Open 6.30pm, with the show starting at 7.15pm. Tickets cost £14.50, £12.50 for E.P. members, £10 for children, available from the Box Office on 01308 424901 or online at www.seetickets.com.

Extremely well presented three bedroom house in a peaceful rural setting

SYMONDS & Sampson are delighted to see the return for sale of a property sold by the firm at auction in 2011.

Christopher Cottage, just outside the village of Chardstock needed comprehensive updating and was an extremely popular lot, attracting over 100 viewings and competitive bidding in the auction room. We are delighted to have the opportunity of marketing it again, this time transformed by renovation and extension into an extremely well presented 3 bedroom / 3 bathroom house in a peaceful rural setting. In the original old cottage is a new kitchen / dining room with a utility off. Two generous sized reception rooms enjoy the outlook on the mature garden. Upstairs, the main bedroom is vaulted and displays the charm of original beams and has a smart en suite shower room. There is another double bedroom with en suite and a third double bedroom and family bathroom. Outside the cottage is approached by a gravel drive with ample parking.

A pathway leads through a lawn with mature beds and trees to the old orchard, which is currently carpeted in snowdrops with daffodils to follow. A small stream skirts one side of the boundary. A green lane borders the southern boundary. House, garden and grounds of 0.46 acre. Contact the agents on Axminster 01297 33122 Price Guide £475,000

Isuzu D-Max scoops Pick-Up of the Year Award

THE widely-acclaimed Isuzu D-Max has collected yet another accolade – the prestigious 2013 VansA2Z Pick-Up of the Year Award, announced in London on Thursday.

Launched last June, the D-Max has quickly established itself as a worthy successor to the highly popular Rodeo and has become a big sales hit, elevating the Japanese brand to second place in the UK pick-up sales rankings.

Neil McIntee, editor of VansA2Z.com, said of the D-Max: "There's a seemingly endless supply of torque from the 2.5 litre commonrail diesel engine, a full choice of body styles and trim levels; it's an accomplished mud-plugger, it can match load capabilities with the best, and its external dimensions make it feel nimble to drive. The icing on the cake is the generous five year/125,000-mile warranty."

The judges' full citation is at: <http://vansa2z.com/Vans-of-the-Year-Awards-2013-Pick-Up>

William Brown, Isuzu UK General Manager, commented: "This is a terrific accomplishment for Isuzu in a very competitive market, and demonstrates just how well the D-Max balances its tough and rugged capabilities with exceptional every day refinement. We've worked hard in the UK to ensure the vehicle's strong attributes are matched by its pioneering warranty, impressive standard specifications, low contract hire rates and high residual values. It's very gratifying to see those efforts recognised with this award."

The Isuzu D-Max range includes single, extended (with rear-hinged side access panels) and double cab body configurations. Double cab models are available in four specifications: Isuzu D-Max, Eiger, Yukon and Utah. Prices start at £14,499 (CVOTR) for the entry-level Isuzu D-Max 4x2 single cab and rise to £21,999 (CVOTR) for the top-of-the-range Isuzu D-Max Utah 4x4 double cab automatic.

The Isuzu D-Max is fitted with a completely re-engineered, 2.5-litre twin-turbo diesel engine and is available with a six-speed manual or five-speed automatic transmission. The pick-up is also covered by an industry leading five-year / 125,000-mile warranty.

Isuzu UK continues to present customers with additional great value offers, and recently introduced 'Work' and 'Work Plus' accessory packs, each saving buyers hundreds of pounds on the cost of the individual constituent parts.

New low emission D2 automatic and T2 petrol join the all-new Volvo V40 range

AN EXTENDED offer with further CO₂ reductions are the major driveline news on the model year 2014 Volvo V40s. Buyers of the V40 also have the opportunity to choose the new Sensus Connected Touch system with unique on-line possibilities, including voice-activated Spotify.

Prices for the new engines, automatic option and Sensus Connected Touch will be announced during April and then be available to order immediately.

D2 with improved emissions and transmission options

The V40 D2 and V40 R-Design D2 now benefit from being available to order with an automatic gearbox. CO₂ emissions (EU Combined, preliminary figures) are 102g/km (72.4mpg) in the standard and R-Design versions and 108g/km (68.9mpg) in the V40 Cross Country.

Announced at the Geneva Motorshow, the manual versions of the V40 D2 and V40 D2 R-Design (115hp) now come with reduced CO₂ emissions, down from 94g/km to 88g/km (EU Combined), which translates into a fuel consumption improvement of 4.6mpg, to 83.1mpg. The corresponding figures (preliminary) for the V40 Cross Country with the D2 engine are 99g/km (74.3mpg).

"By continuously cutting CO₂ emissions, we demonstrate our leading position within fuel efficiency improvements," says Doug Speck, Senior Vice President, Marketing, Sales and Customer Service at Volvo Car Group.

New T2 engine with 120hp

Available on the V40 and V40 R-Design, Volvo Cars has added a new variant of the four-cylinder, 1.6-litre engine to the range of direct-injected petrol engines. The Volvo V40 T2 has 120hp and 240 Nm of torque. CO₂ emissions with the manual gearbox are 124g/km (EU Combined, preliminary figures), which translates into fuel consumption of 53.3mpg.

Sensus Connected Touch - connectivity on a new level

The all-new Sensus Connected Touch enables connectivity and Internet in the car and turns the 7-inch display into a state-of-the-art infrared, beam-scanned touch screen

Hyundai Europe on track to meet 2013 goals

- Hyundai market share up to 3.8% in February
- Company looks to stabilise its share at 3.5% this year
- Focus on qualitative enhancements to encourage future growth

HYUNDAI increased its share of the European new car market to 3.8% last month, according to figures released by European motor industrybody, ACEA. Hyundai registrations rose by 1.4% to 31,753 units compared to the same period last year, while the overall market in February fell by 10.2%.

Allan Rushforth, Senior Vice President and COO of Hyundai Motor Europe, commented: "Although we do not anticipate continuous growth this year, we are satisfied with our performance so far in 2013. Our focus is to maintain our 3.5% share of the European market, while working hard on our long term projects to develop our brand image and increase customer loyalty by enhancing the Hyundai experience."

"Achieving these goals will lay firm foundations for future Hyundai growth in Europe from 2014 onwards, by which time we expect the European car market to be showing signs of improvement."

Hyundai has made significant investment to strengthen its European business infrastructure recently - with a view to enhancing the quality of its operations.

The Hyundai plant in Turkey is currently undergoing a €475 million investment to increase its annual capacity from 120,000 to 200,000 cars a year. The company's European headquarters are also undergoing expansion, while a €5.5 million test centre located next to the famous Nürburgring race track in Germany will allow the quality and driving performance of Hyundai's Europe-designed vehicles to be further improved.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

The weather strikes again! All change at South Petherton

ROUND-UP
Results, March 16th
JUST six Perry Street League games survived the weekend's downpour.

Both Bill Bailey cup semi-finals were completed, and both went with form. Division three promotion candidates and cup-holders Combe A surged past Chard United Reserves 5-1 at Jocelyn Park.

An own goal from Fenton Day handed Chard the lead but Mark Stoodley levelled before half-time.

Combe took the lead when a mix-up presented Warren Gabbidon with the chance to tap in his 34th goal of the season.

From there Gary Biss' side didn't look back and cruised home with further goals from Stoodley, Jordan Allen and substitute Wayne Long.

Combe's opponents in the final at Beaminster on Thursday, April 18th will be Millwey Rise Reserves who had few problems in brushing aside Hinton 5-0.

Carl German nodded Rise ahead and top-scorer Mark Pike added a second before the break - his 14th goal of the season.

The result was assured when German headed home his second soon after the restart.

Keith Forsey made it 4-0 from the penalty spot and Marc Jenkins rounded things off for Rise who will be bidding to lift the trophy for the first time in the club's history.

In the day's only premier division game Combe Reserves recorded their third clean sheet in four games but failed to register at the other end and were held to a 0-0 draw by visiting Shepton Beauchamp.

Shepton manager Aggie Smith will be pleased with the point as his team attempt to beat an immediate drop back down into division one.

Looking to make the trip in the opposite direction are Misterton. Adge Diment's side, currently top of division one led 2-0 going down the slope at Barrington through Sandy Veale and Steve Taylor.

But the hosts battled back and grabbed a point courtesy of goals from Tom Perry and player-manager Gary Stranger.

The result sees Misterton, unbeaten in six, extend their lead at the top to four points. But second-placed West & Middle Chinnock have three games in hand.

At the other end of the table Perry Street Reserves jumped a place after a 4-0 win at seemingly doomed South Petherton Reserves who have now lost eight on the spin.

Sam Bond (2), Rob Steed and Billy Sheahan netted for the Mothers.

The top-of-the-table clash down in division three lived up to expectations with Winsham United Reserves ending Luso-Chard's 16-game unbeaten run and leap-frogging their way up to top spot.

Brian Garrett put Winsh ahead with a 30-yarder that flashed in off the underside of the crossbar.

Rob Long doubled the lead early in the second period with a 40-yard free-kick that the visiting 'keeper let slip through his hands.

The visitors battled back the equalise with goals from Louis Mesquita and Jose Marquez.

But the hosts clinched their win 11 minutes from time when player-boss Richard White headed home his 10th of the campaign.

Childs had been manager at Lightgate Lane since the start of the 2010-11 season when he led the team to their fourth premier division title in six seasons.

Pethy secretary Ray Cooper confirmed to View Sport last Wednesday morning that ex-manager John White, assisted by former long-serving goalkeeper Jardine Mackenzie, would see the club through to the end of the season.

Cotley celebrates 60 years of racing

COMMENCING at 1.30pm on Easter Saturday (March 30th), the annual Cotley Point-to-Point will celebrate 60 years of outstanding amateur steeplechasing at one of the West Country's most charismatic racing venues, Cotley Farm, near Chard (TA20 3EP).

One of the highlights of this year's race meeting is an additional special restricted flat race in aid of the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance charity.

Open only to Cotley Hunt members riding their hunters, this promises to be a true amateur race, albeit a hotly contested one.

Vivyan Eames, who owns and farms the Cotley Estate and who has been Chairman of the Point-to-Point for over 35 years, said: "We already have ten entries for the sponsored charity flat race and as a result we are hoping to raise well over £1,000 for Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance."

"It's a mixed field of all shapes and sizes and includes two well known local pensioners."

Preview of runners in the Cotley Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance Charity Flat Race

Entries in this race are restricted to Cotley Hunt subscribers riding horses that have hunted a minimum of five days and who have never won a race under any recognised racing authority.

All horses will carry a minimum weight of 12st 7lb and riders must wear hunting dress and racing helmets.

Each rider must have raised £100 minimum in sponsorship and there will be a special prize for the rider who has raised the highest amount.

What's on the Cotley race card?

IN addition to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance charity race, the six main races on the 2013 Cotley Diamond Jubilee race card will be: 2 1/2 mile maiden for horses aged 4-7 years, Mixed open (ladies and gentlemen riders), Open Maiden over 3 miles for horses aged five years and over.

Countryside Alliance Club race for horses that have not won a race in the past two years, Cotley Hunt members race, Restricted race for horses that have never won an open, intermediate or restricted race under Turf Authority rules.

Coming from the land down under!

UPLYME & Lyme Regis have signed Australian Alex Taylor for the upcoming 2013 cricket season.

The 21-year-old brings an impressive record from down under where he plays for Western Districts CC in Canberra.

Taylor, an off spinning all-rounder whose first captain was Australian test player Nathan Lyon, boasts career bests of 146 and 6 for 34.

First XI captain Steve Batey said: "It's an exciting development for the club after our promotion to Division D of the Devon Cricket league last season."

"We are looking forward to having Alex amongst the ranks he's due to land in the UK on April 23rd."

The new season commences on May 4th with a local-derby at coastal neighbours Seaton.

WEST DORSET YOUTH CRICKET

Osprey Leisure Centre hosts youth cricket Celebration Day

A FESTIVAL of Cricket marked the culmination of the indoor cricket season at the Osprey Centre, Portland as players from all the participating clubs celebrated a successful campaign.

The day began with the players dividing into two teams to play an indoor 20/20.

Lovett's Leggy's batting first, showed some fine form with excellent stroke play and running as they accumulated 163-6 in their innings.

Strongbow's Sloggers set about the run chase with gusto and punished anything short of a length as the runs quickly mounted.

The Leggy's fought back with a succession of quick wickets, but could not prevent the Sloggers passing the required total with 4.2 overs remaining.

A ten over slog fest followed with Joe's Juggernauts amassing a respectable 104-5.

Jack's Jokers passed the total with eight balls remaining in a contest that highlighted all that is good in youth cricket.

Medals and trophies were presented by Osprey Manager Nigel Williams to each of the leagues winners and runners-up.

Mr Williams was full of praise for all the players, he said: "Osprey have been proud to host the indoor season.

enjoyment

"It was great to see so many youngsters, not only participating, but enjoying playing competitive cricket and filling the gap between the outdoor seasons.

"Thanks must be given to Grant Nevan and Aaron Riley for organising the league on behalf of the kids, especially as so many parents asked if the league would be sponsored next year to which the answer was a resounding yes!"

The story behind the medals

AS the Olympic and Paralympic Games venue for sailing, the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy in Dorset has experienced a unique and unforgettable few years in the run up to and during the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Now that the games are over and the Olympic legacy is in full swing, there is time to look back and reflect on the pre games training and preparation that enabled our British Olympians to compete on a global level.

With fantastic results achieved in 2012 and an impressive collection of gold medals being won and presented to the world's top sailors at the iconic waterside venue, it is easy to be swept along in the celebrations and forget the hard work and pure dedication that went into preparing not only the venue, but the competitors themselves for the greatest show on earth.

The celebrated sailing destination began creating Olympic champions years before the words Beijing and London Olympics had been uttered.

Developed to take advantage of some of the best small boat sailing waters on the planet, the WPNSA has provided an unrivalled location for training and sailing competitions for a great number of years.

The combination of clean winds, sheltered waters and weak tides in the area is unique, and the world class facility set in the centre of the Jurassic Coast provided the perfect training venue in the run up to the Olympic Games.

The success of the WPNSA began early when it became the first 2012 venue to be completed in November 2008, with three years to spare, and it played a crucial part in the overall success of the London Olympics 2012, and the number of medals Team GBR won.

Team GBR finally won a total of five Olympic (one gold, four silver), and two Paralympic (one gold and one bronze) sailing medals; the impressive medal haul illustrating how the preparation of the sailors at the academy had been essential to their final results.

However, the academy had been preparing Olympic sailors for many years prior to the Olympics, having had the honour of witnessing and nurturing the emerging talent of young British sailors as they undertook their training schedules and entered into the competitive, and then professional sailing world.

One such young sailor was the now Sir Ben Ainslie CBE, the most successful sailor in Olympic history. Ainslie began sailing in the waters of his native Cornwall at a very young age and would later be a frequent visitor to the WPNSA, undertaking his Olympic training at the now iconic venue.

He paid his compliments to the Academy in saying: "WPNSA is home to some of the best sailing waters in the world and there is tough competition to gain this status.

high profile

The highest profile sailors in the world have competed at the venue which itself has showcased one of the most watched global events.

"I have sailed on these waters since I was racing youth classes and the WPNSA is a great improvement upon the facilities I used back then.

"The new generation getting out on the water have a very bright future and a first rate sports venue readily available to them that represents such a great opportunity.

"I have no doubt the venue will go on to host a raft of quality sailing events as it is now firmly on the map as a premiere location to compete.

"Personally I will never forget winning my Olympic Gold medal in front of a home crowd and on waters so familiar to me."

Now also a member of the board of directors for the WPNSA, Ainslie will continue to play a role at the centre which supported him throughout his sailing career and Olympic campaigns.

Ainslie is not the only Gold medalist to sing the praises of WPNSA, as Paralympic Gold Medalist Helena Lucas MBE also trained from the Academy for a number of years before and during her Olympic campaign. Lucas won gold in 2012 in the 2.4mR event.

She said: "Winning gold on home waters in Weymouth and Portland was an amazing experience; the home support is something I will never forget and it spurred me on tremendously.

"Training and competing at WPNSA throughout my preparation certainly contributed to my result and I will always love sailing here. It is an unbeatable venue for disabled sailors with new, purpose built, facilities.

"For example, there are disabled access hoists on the pontoons, providing the safest access to tidal waters for people with disabilities anywhere in the UK. I don't know of any other sailing venue where the needs of sailors of all abilities are so well catered for."

However, it was not only Team GB who performed outstandingly during the sailing Olympics and Paralympics, with competitors from across the globe winning medals in British waters.

A key to the success was the ability for them to access and train in the Olympic waters before the games began; reaping the benefits of this fantastic advantage.

The academy was the first Olympic sailing venue to open to international competitors prior to the games since Kiel in 1972, and by operating in such a way this created a level playing field for competitors, with the final sailing competition higher than ever.

Sailors from Italy, USA, Canada, Australia, Spain, Sweden, Holland, Argentina, Denmark and Russia trained at the academy pre the games, and having these teams on site, some of which were for a number of years; brought a great international feel to the area.

The WPNSA played a truly essential part in training and assisting all Olympic and Paralympic sailors in both the 2012 Games and in the years leading up to the event; without its excellent facilities Team GBR may not have achieved such admirable results.

Controversial end to season as 'A' team are relegated

Okehampton A 2 West Dorset A 1

WEST Dorset A were relegated in controversial circumstances when they travelled to Okehampton A on Saturday.

Going into this last game of the season, the Bridport-based club needed at least a draw, depending on Taunton Vale D's result or to beat their hosts who were one point and one place below them remain in South East 2 of the Davis Wood Hockey League.

Things looked good at the break with West Dorset leading 1-0, but a number of controversial decisions from the home umpires in the second-half saw Okehampton score twice to secure their safety in place of their opponents, who now drop to South East 3.

West Dorset 3 Ashmoor 2

WEST Dorset's first team ended their season with a narrow victory over Ashmoor to secure seventh spot in South East1.

Two goals from Dan Wyatt following short corners and a tap-in for Richard Coombs gave the hosts a commanding half-time lead, but second-half complacency saw a spirited fight back from Ashmoor who pulled back two of the goals to leave West Dorset hanging on at the final whistle.

Beaminster show fighting spirit

BOURNEMOUTH 4TH 2 BEAMINSTER 2

BEAMINSTER, free of relegation, travelled to Chapel Gate for their penultimate game of the season but soon found themselves under pressure when 'keeper Lisa Condliffe pulled a hamstring after ten minutes.

Phoebe Stewart took her place, but with no substitutes to call on it meant the West Dorset side had to play the rest of the game with ten players.

Fortunately the home side had a few veterans among their ranks allowing the younger Beaminster players to counter their lack of experience with speed and fleet of foot.

However, while the visitors were trying to regroup Bournemouth took advantage, and went ahead with a flick from the top of the D following a short corner.

Beaminster weren't deterred and hit back when Danni Donovan fed Abbie Dare who beat the 'keeper in a one-on-one to level the score.

This settled Beaminster and they applied a lot of pressure to the home defence without getting the rewards they deserved so went in at the interval level.

This pressure continued in the second-half and they deservedly went ahead when Becky Early scored from the top of the D following a short corner.

However, a player short, Beaminster began to tire as the game progressed, and Bournemouth equalised five minutes from time with a flicked ball from a tight angle.

The two sides play each other again at Bournemouth in the final game of the season, and if Beaminster can avoid defeat they will finish fourth in Channel 1 Division of the West Clubs Women's Hockey League.

The Gala, mainly for the 10 and under are intended to give the Club's newest and youngest swimmers a taster at competitive swimming at a fun, and friendly Gala.

The races in each of the four strokes were all one length only, and over 50 young swimmers took part supported by parents and friends watching from poolside.

Congratulations go to Harriet Copeman, Brianna Barrand, and Louis Rood who swam under 20 seconds for the first time in their 25m freestyle race and so achieved the club's Bronze Speed Badge.

BOB BUCKLER RACING

WITH STUART BROOM

Digger keeps them guessing

A BUG in the stables has meant a lot of locally-based Bob Buckler's horses have been laid low recently, leaving Double Dizzy as the yard's only runner recently.

Unfortunately, Tinker Time who arrived from Jeremy Scott's point-to-point yard at the beginning of February brought a bug that has virtually closed Scott's yard, and has affected a number of horses at Buckler's Henley yard.

"It's one of those unfortunate things, but it has affected a number of our horses, particularly the younger ones who have not yet built up resistance to such a disease.

"All we can do at the moment is treat them with antibiotics. Many of them are in work doing bits and pieces but not fit enough to race yet."

In the meantime "Digger" gave another superb display of jumping around Cheltenham's cross-country course in the Glenfarclas Handicap Chase over 3m7f course of varying jumps to finish tenth.

"He ran and jumped beautifully again, but does not have the speed to compete with the younger horses, but it is when they turn for home and go back on to the race track which is drained and therefore much drier where he gets stuck for speed."

jumping superbly

The race had to be postponed from Tuesday until Thursday because the cross-country course was originally frozen in some places.

"If they had run it on Friday when we had all that rain it would have suited him better as he likes soft ground.

"But now we must decide if he has one more race in him, or to retire him.

Senior looking for improvement on last term

BRIDPORT boss Trevor Senior saw last Tuesday's home game against fellow strugglers Winterbourne United as crucial in his side's fight to ensure Toolstation Western League Premier Division survival.

A win would put Bridport three points clear of their visitors with a game in hand, above Ilfracombe and possibly only two points behind Bristol Manor Farm with four games in hand.

"We could be doing with opening a little gap up on them, but we are also looking at Bristol Manor Farm, who we play on April 6th. They were some way ahead of us, albeit having played more games, but who are not in good form.

"We also have to play Ilfracombe, home and away, as well as Longwell Green Sports, who we entertain on Saturday, and Radstock Town, both of whom are catchable."

The Bees moved out of the bottom three and above Winterbourne United on goal difference following their recent 3-1 victory over bottom side Barnstaple Town.

Victory would take them to 31 points from 27 games and in sight of beating last season's total of 34 points from 34 games.

"I know we have 38 games to play this season, but it would be good to beat last season's tally after 34 games to show we have made an improvement; that mean's six points from the next six fixtures.

"There are five or six sides in and around us that we have to battle it out to win the points.

"We still have some tough games against top of the table sides, but then so do all the others."

Unfortunately, Bridport will have to do it without the services of former Bee Jamie Symes who has been on loan at St Mary's Field for two months. I was disappointed we couldn't keep Jamie for another month, but that is Dorchester's prerogative.

"I don't think it is a coincidence that the results have improved since he joined us. His presence certainly helped our game, and it is disappointing that he has gone back."

The Bees boss however still hasn't given up hope of getting him back before the end of the season.

"There is no reason why we can't sign him again on loan for another month, and so maybe in a few weeks time when Dorchester have a better idea of their position in the league perhaps we can get him back for the final push."

Saturday's trip to Brislington was postponed on Saturday morning leaving Bridport with 12 games to play in remaining six weeks of the season,

This will put a strain on Senior's resources, and the loss of Symes only exacerbates the situation.

On the plus side however Senior can call upon Russell Legg, now back after suspension, and Max Buckler who is now fit.

Although he still has the problem of 'keeper San Filkins not being available for midweek games through a change in the train timetables not enabling him to be able to return to university in time.

Looking to the run-in Senior added: "I said at the beginning of the season that I wanted us to take more points off the top teams and to turn more defeats into draws which we have done already, so we know we are capable."
